19. RECORDS MAINTENANCE

The Contractor shall maintain all books, records, documents, data, and other evidence relating to this Agreement and performance of the services described herein, including but not limited to accounting procedures and practices which sufficiently and properly reflect all direct and indirect costs of any nature expended in the performance of this Agreement. Contractor shall retain such records for a period of six (6) years following the date of final payment.

If any litigation, claim, or audit is started before the expiration of the six (6) year period, the records shall be retained until all litigation, claims, or audit findings involving the records have been finally resolved.

In lieu of termination, the Agreement may be amended to reflect the new funding limitations and conditions.

21. SEVERABILITY

If any provision of this Agreement or any provision of any document incorporated by reference shall be held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the other provisions of this Agreement that can be given effect without the invalid provision, if such remainder conforms to the requirements of law and the fundamental purpose of this Agreement, and to this end the provisions of this Agreement are declared to be severable.

Such termination shall be deemed "for cause." Termination shall take effect on the date specified in the notice.

In the alternative, COMMERCE upon written notice may allow the Contractor a specific period of time in which to correct the non-compliance. Failure by the Contractor to take timely corrective action shall allow COMMERCE to terminate the Agreement upon written notice to the Contractor.

"Termination for Cause" shall be deemed a "Termination for Convenience" when COMMERCE determines that the Contractor did not fail to comply with the terms of the Agreement or when COMMERCE determines the failure was not caused by the Contractor's actions or negligence.

- D. Preserve and transfer any materials, Agreement deliverables, and/or COMMERCE property in the Contractor's possession as directed by COMMERCE.

Upon termination of the Agreement, COMMERCE shall pay the Contractor for any service provided by the Contractor under the Agreement prior to the date of termination.
